ARE YOU PREPARED FOR

FIRST

CONTACT

The Australian Red Cross is hosting a preview launch of the new Star Trek movie: First Contact to help raise funds for drought afflicted families in Queensland.

Many people wouldn't realise it but the ideals expressed by Gene Roddenberry more than 30 years ago were not new.

A Swiss businessman called Henry Dunant came up with a very similar set of principles in 1863, more than a hundred years before the Enterprise first left spacedock on her initial five year mission.

And like Dunant's original vision, Roddenberry's dream has been taken up by subsequent generations.

Now, after a brief cameo in DS9, the Red Cross and the Federation have joined forces to bring you the REAL movie event of the year.

THE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF THE RED CROSS

HUMANITY

The Red Cross endeavours - in its international and national capacity - to prevent and alleviate human suffering wherever it may be found. Its purpose is to protect life and health and to ensure respect for the human being.

IMPARTIALITY

The Red Cross makes no distinction as to nationality, race, religious beliefs, class or political opinions. It endeavours to relieve the suffering of individuals, being guided solely by their needs, and to give priority to the most urgent cases of distress.

NEUTRALITY

In order to continue to enjoy the confidence of all, the Movement may not take sides in hostilities or engage at any time in controversies of a political, racial, religious or ideological nature.

INDEPENDENCE

The Red Cross is independent. The National Societies, must always maintain their autonomy so that they may be able at all times to act in accordance with Red Cross principles.

VOLUNTARY SERVICE

The Red Cross is a voluntary relief organisation not prompted in any manner by desire for gain.

UNITY

There can only be one Red Cross or one Red Crescent Society in any one country. It must be open to all. It must carry on its humanitarian work throughout its territory.

UNIVERSALITY

The international Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement is a world wide institution in which all Societies have equal status and share equal responsibilities and duties in helping each other
